

Kate Dean

Director, Enable Disability & Inclusion Consultants Ltd

Kate Dean spent over 10 years leading and managing student facing disability support teams in universities before setting up Enable Disability & Inclusion Consultants in March 2020.

Kate has many years' experience of identifying appropriate adjustments and enabling strategies that allow people to work to their strengths, working across a wide range of disabilities and long-term conditions, but particularly specialising in neurodiversity, mental health, and hidden disabilities.

Kate now supports organisations with end-to-end solution focused support to deliver specialist consultancy, training, and individual workplace assessments to identify and remove barriers to high performance in the workplace.

Kate brings her own lived experience and the strengths of neurodiversity to her work.
